1. Introduction

This policy sets out Gospel Oak School's approach to homework and has been designed to ensure clarity, consistency and fairness for students, staff and parents/carers. Homework is an integral part of learning at Gospel Oak and plays an important role in consolidating classroom learning, developing independent study habits and preparing students for future success.

The policy aims to ensure that homework:

- supports learning without causing unnecessary stress.
- is purposeful and directly linked to curriculum intent.
- develops routines, responsibility and independence.
- is manageable for students and sustainable for staff.

2. Why Homework Matters

Homework is an essential component of effective education. Research consistently shows that regular, well-designed homework supports progress by:

- reinforcing and consolidating learning from lessons.
- enabling students to practise and apply knowledge independently.
- supporting long-term retention through retrieval and repetition.
- developing organisation, resilience and self-discipline.
- preparing students for assessments and examinations.

At Gospel Oak, homework is designed to complement high-quality teaching rather than replace it.

3. Creating Sustainable Study Habits

We believe that clear routines and high expectations are key to academic success and student wellbeing. Homework at Gospel Oak is structured to reduce uncertainty and cognitive overload, helping students to build positive habits over time.

All homework is set:

- on school nights only (Monday - Friday).
- in manageable time allocations.
- with clear instructions and deadlines.

Students are explicitly taught how to complete homework effectively, particularly retrieval-based tasks.

4. Supporting Your Son/Daughter at Home

Parents and carers can support effective homework habits by:

- providing a quiet, distraction-free workspace.

- encouraging mobile phones to be kept away during homework time.
- taking an interest in what has been set and how it links to learning.
- supporting organisation by checking deadlines on ClassCharts;
- praising effort and consistency rather than just outcomes.

5. Types of Homework Set

Homework at Gospel Oak may include:

- Retrieval and quizzing tasks to strengthen memory.
- Written or online practice tasks.
- Application tasks, such as exam-style questions.
- Exam papers
- Deep Learning Projects (Years 7-9).

Homework is never set as simple re-copying or highlighting, as these are not effective learning strategies.
